

Cut-to-length Timber

Product Benefits

Tumu Timbers is your one stop shop for cut to length timber products for domestic and export markets.

We have invested in the latest processing, grading and machining technology to produce products to specific dimensions, lengths and profiles. We can also produce cut to length timber in different timber grades with either a rough sawn or machined finish.

Feature	Advantage	Benefit
Digitally graded timber shook components	Consistently accurate timber grading	Graded to customer specific requirements
Large capacity cutting and state of the art processing operation	We can efficiently process large volume orders whilst maintaining high quality standards.	Reliable supply during your peak seasonal demand
Heat treatment for export	Heat treatment in our Windsor kiln	Guaranteed export compliance.
	No chemicals used in the heat treatment process	Organic compliance.
Timber preservation	Modern, fully automated treatment plant offering a range of treatment options	Accuracy of preservative penetration and retention. Quick product turnarounds.
	Limited guarantee provided for all tanalised product – backed by our chemical supplier.	Peace of mind over product longevity and reliability

Grooved bearers/dunnage

H3 treated infill timber

Heat treated CTL export components

